Directions for Märchen:

Construction:

*There will be a 3-percentage point deduction off your final project grade for each direction not followed on this list.

- Paper to be used is no bigger than 8 ½" x 11", and no smaller than 5 ½" by 8 ½" (an 8 ½ x 11 sheet of paper folded in half.) Cut the pages if you are using half pages. Each page submitted must be separate.
- Use only one side of each sheet of paper. Do not draw/type on both sides of a page.
- You may type or handwrite your story, or present it as a Keynote/PowerPoint presentation, in which case it must be submitted as a file via email, cloud-based link, or on a USB stick.
- You may illustrate your story any way you see fit. Hand, computer, cutouts from magazines, stencils, pencils, paints, etc. Alles ist möglich!
- Include a cover page, with your Märchentitel and your name as author/illustrator. You may illustrate this (which will count towards your 5 illustration minimum).
- Number your pages, and write your last name on the back of each page. This is important as the individual pages will be laminated and bound into a storybook.
- Electronic books will be presented to the class. (Such as a Keynote/PowerPoint)
- Paperclip your work together. Do not staple. PLEASE INCLUDE A COPY OF THIS RUBRIK WITH YOUR SUBMISSION.

Story:

- You may choose to write a Märchen as follows:
 - Create a new Märchen
 - Take an existing Märchen, and begin your story 20 or so years later.
 - Take an existing Märchen, and update it, or put it into a different context.
- These elements of a Märchen must be present: (a 3 percentage point deduction off your final project grade for each missing element.)
 - Das Gute
 - Das Böse
 - Die Not
 - Die Aufgabe/Lehre
 - Die Hilfe (zauberisch?)
 - Die Belohnung

Timetable:

*Anything submitted late will result in a 5 point per day deduction off the final grade.

- First written draft (Rohentwurf) due Thursday, Nov 1st.
- You will exchange the rough drafts on their due date in class with at least two other students for editing. Classmates who edit will receive a daily participation grade for their attention to detail in reviewing your story. Dictionaries and books may be used to check work. I will collect this Rohentwurf to review as well, and return during the following week.
- Second written draft due Friday, November 9th. Again, we will edit in class.
- Do not include illustrations until the text has been edited*. You may illustrate separately, but do not put the text on your illustrations until you are sure your text is correct.
- Final copy with illustrations due on Friday, November 16th.
- Märchentag – Dienstag den 20. November! Wir machen eine Party!

Grading:

The rubric is on the reverse side of this page. The Märchen will count for 2 Examen grades.

Vorsicht – es gibt viele Märchen im Internet. Ich werde sofort erfassen, wenn Sie etwas abgekupfert haben.
